

PLEYO

ANIMATION®

The patented Pleyo technology transforms a mini trampoline into a cutting-edge game controller, providing an interactive and immersive experience like no other.

The catalog of available games is constantly growing. There are games where you play against each other, as well as games where you just have to work together.

The Pleyo games encourage skill and commitment with a scoring system that makes each game an exciting competition.

The Pleyo mini trampolines not only enhance the gaming experience, but also offer extensive health benefits, from improved cardiovascular function to improved balance and coordination.

This animation is available in versions for 2, 3 or 4 players.
